1. Aims

The aims of Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) at our College are to:

- Provide a framework in which sensitive discussions can take place
- Prepare students for puberty, and give them an understanding of sexual development and the importance of health and hygiene
- Help students develop feelings of self-respect, confidence and empathy
- Create a positive culture around issues of sexuality and relationships
- Teach students the correct vocabulary to describe themselves and their bodies

2. Statutory requirements

As a fully registered Independent School we are required to provide RSE to all pupils under section 34 of the Children and Social Work Act 2017.

In teaching RSE, we must have regard to guidance issued by the secretary of state, as outlined in section 403 of the Education Act 1996.

We also have regard to legal duties set out in:

- Sections 406 and 407 of the Education Act 1996
- Part 6, chapter 1 of the Equality Act 2010
- The Public Sector Equality Duty (as set out in section 149 of the Equality Act 2010). This duty requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations between different people when carrying out their activities

At CTC we teach RSE as set out in this policy.

3. Policy development

The viewpoints of our staff, students and outside professional presenters have been canvassed in the development of this policy. Views of parents / carers / guardians are also welcomed and taken into account.

This policy is reviewed annually.

All student feedback and undertaken is taken termly.

Compulsory School Age (CSA) students receive an additional questionnaire to complete at the end of the entire PSHE programme.

We use a variety of outside professionals to deliver key components of this policy and welcome input from outside professional bodies.

This policy is on our website and parents may email patricia.brown@ctc.ac.uk with any queries, viewpoints or general comments.

4. Definition

CTC considers that:

- RSE is about the emotional, social and cultural development of young people, and involves learning about relationships, sexual health, sexuality, healthy lifestyles, diversity and personal identity.
- RSE involves a combination of sharing information, and exploring issues and values.
- RSE is not about the promotion of sexual activity.

5. Curriculum

Our general RSE curriculum is set out as per Appendix 1, however, we may need to adapt it as and when necessary.

We review the curriculum in consultation with students, outside professionals, Government guidance, current affairs and issues, taking into account the age, developmental stage, needs and feelings of our students.

If students ask questions outside the scope of this policy, colleagues will respond in an appropriate manner so that students are fully informed as far as possible, or are signposted to the appropriate places where accurate help, support and information can be obtained.

6. Delivery of Relationship and Sex Education (RSE)

RSE is taught within the Personal, Social, Health and Economic (PSHE) education curriculum.

The curriculum is fully accessible to all students, i.e. for those whose first language is not English as well as for those who have any special educational needs.

For the CSA students, the additional Biological aspects of RSE are taught by CTC Science tutors in line with the GCSE Biology curriculum.

Religious Education is also incorporated in the yearly PSHE plan.

RSE focuses on giving young people the information they need to help them develop healthy, nurturing relationships of all kinds including:

- Families
- Respectful relationships, including friendships
- Online and media
- Being safe
- Intimate and sexual relationships, including sexual health

For more information about our RSE curriculum, see Appendices 1 and 2.

These areas of learning are taught within the context of family life, taking care to make sure that there is no stigmatisation of children based on their home circumstances (families can include single parent families, LGBT parents, families headed by grandparents, adoptive parents and foster parents/carers, amongst other structures), along with reflecting sensitively that some children may have a different structure of support around them (for example, looked-after children or young carers).

We will also be mindful of the law and legal requirements, taking care not to condone or encourage illegal political activity, such as violent action against people, criminal damage to property, hate crime, terrorism or the illegal use of drugs.

6.1 Inclusivity

We will teach about these topics in a manner that:

- Considers how a diverse range of young people will relate to them
- Is sensitive to all students' experiences
- During lessons, ensure students feel:
 - Safe and supported
 - Able to engage with the key messages

We will also:

- Ensure students learn about these topics in an environment that's feels right for them
- Students are informed in advance about the nature of some of the compulsory and non compulsory components, or of a topic may be relevant or sensitive to them i.e. bereavement / abuse / family issues etc

- It some cases we will consider delivery of this topic on a 1:1 basis or one of the below
 - Small groups or targeted sessions
 - 1-to-1 discussions
 - Digital formats
- We are mindful of the cultural diversity of our student population and give advance notification as necessary
- Give careful consideration to the level of differentiation needed

6.2 Use of resources

We will consider whether any resources we plan to use:

- Are aligned with the teaching requirements set out in the statutory RSE guidance
- Would support young people in applying their knowledge in different contexts and settings
- Are age-appropriate, given the age, developmental stage and background of our students
- Are evidence-based and contain robust facts and statistics
- Fit into our curriculum plan
- Are from credible sources
- Are compatible with effective teaching approaches
- Are sensitive to students' experiences and won't provoke distress

7. Use of external organisations and materials

We will make sure that an agency or external professional presenter and any materials used are appropriate and in line with our legal duties around political impartiality.

The College remains responsible for what is said to our students.

This includes making sure that any speakers, tools and resources used don't undermine the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.

The College will:

- Make appropriate checks and engage with external agencies to make sure that their approach to teaching about RSE is balanced, and it and the resources they intend to use:
 - Are age-appropriate
 - Are in line with young people's developmental stage
 - Comply with:
 - This policy
 - The Teachers' Standards
 - The Equality Act 2010
 - The Human Rights Act 1998

- The Education Act 1996

- Only work with external agencies where we have full confidence in the agency, its approach and the resources it uses
- Make sure that any speakers and resources meet the intended outcome of the relevant part of the curriculum
- Be clear on:
 - What they're going to say
 - Their position on the issues to be discussed
- If felt necessary, ask to see in advance any materials that the agency may use, or speak to other people the agency / professional has worked with
- Know the named individuals who will be there, and follow our usual safeguarding procedures for these people
- Conduct a basic online search and address anything that may be of concern to us, or to parents and carers
- Check the agency's protocol for taking pictures or using any personal data they might get from a session
- Remind any colleagues present that they can say "no" or, in extreme cases, stop a session
- The College will not under any circumstances:
 - Work with external agencies that take or promote extreme political positions
 - Use materials produced by such agencies, even if the material itself is not extreme

8. Roles and responsibilities

8.1 The Governing Body (at CTC this is the Trust Council)

The Trust Council has delegated the approval and implementation of this policy to Principal and Senior Leadership Team.

8.2 The Principal

The Principal is responsible for managing requests to withdraw any student from the non-statutory/non-science components of RSE (see section 9).

8.3 Staff

Staff involved in the delivery of RSE are responsible for:

- Delivering RSE in a sensitive way
- Modelling positive attitudes to RSE
- Responding to the needs of individual students
- Responding appropriately to students whose parents wish them to be withdrawn from the non-statutory/non-science components of RSE

The majority of the PSHE curriculum is delivered by outside professional speakers, however, the following colleagues are involved with delivering some aspects of the curriculum:

Elizabeth Slater Head of Biology
Patricia Brown SLT / DSL and Head of Student Welfare

8.4 Students

Students are expected to engage fully in RSE and, when discussing issues related to RSE, treat others with respect and sensitivity.

9. Parents' right to withdraw

Parents have the right to withdraw their child from the non-statutory/non-science components of sex education within RSE up to and until 3 terms before the child turns 16. After this point, if the child wishes to receive sex education rather than being withdrawn, the school will arrange this.

Requests for withdrawal should be put in writing using the form found in Appendix 3 of this policy and addressed to the Principal.

A copy of withdrawal requests will be placed in the student's educational record. The Principal will discuss the request with parents and take appropriate action.

Alternative academic work will be given to students who are withdrawn from sex education.

10. Training

Experienced colleagues are engaged in the delivery of RSE and are welcome to engage in appropriate CPD or request the input or training from external organisations or other professionals.

11. Monitoring arrangements

The delivery of RSE is monitored by Patricia Brown in her capacity of SLT and Head of Student Welfare through:

- Student feedback questionnaires at the end of their course (CSA students)
- Termly feedback for all students via their Personal Tutor (personal tutor form)
- End of Term reports, for all students, (via the personal tutor using questionnaires based on each term's work.)

This policy will be reviewed by P M Brown SLT / DSL / Head of Student Welfare at the end of the academic year and approved by the Principal and SLT
